EuGMS - European Geriatric Medicine Society
The European Geriatric Medicine Society, EuGMS, is the geriatric medical organisation in Europe. The core mission of the EuGMS is to develop geriatric medicine in all member states as a recognised independent medical specialty, contributing to the care of all older people with age-related diseases.

EuGMS Annual Congress
Year after year, the EuGMS Annual Congress has become one of the most important international events in the field of Geriatric Medicine. The Congress targets at specialists and health care professionals sharing the same interest in geriatric medicine: mainly geriatricians, internists, general practitioners, neurologists and physicians from every medical discipline, therapists, nurses, gerontologists, researchers and scientists, pharmacists, nutritionists as well as anyone taking care of the older patients, in order to understand the social, medical and clinical approach to geriatric diseases.

The EuGMS Community
In Berlin, the EuGMS inaugurated an area dedicated to its members and its activities. In this area delegates can have access to information concerning the Society, its Boards and Members, the EGM Journal, the Special Interest Groups, The Global Europe Initiative, The Social Media Group and the EuGMS Annual congress.
