Guidelines for the site selection of the 19th Annual Congress of the European Geriatric Medicine Society in 2023

Introduction

The European Union Geriatric Medicine Society (EUGMS) was founded in June 2000 to develop and foster geriatric medicine in all countries of the European Union and to encourage the provision of geriatric medical services to all older citizens in the EU. It aims to promote education, continuing professional development and high-quality evidence-based geriatric medicine. By 2015, the EuGMS activities involved several Special Interest Groups and Task and Finish Groups (Working Groups). Since its foundation EuGMS has gained international reputation and has developed cooperation with an increasing number of European and international organizations.

EuGMS’ visibility is growing both inside and beyond the European Union. In 2017 the name of the Society was changed to European Geriatric Medicine Society (EuGMS) whereby the focus of the activity broadened to all European countries instead of to the European Union members only. The aim is to spread educational activities and high professional standards across European continent and in particular in the countries where geriatric medicine is still emerging or has yet to obtain well-established professional and scientific independence and recognition.

EuGMS congress activities started with the first congress in Paris in 2000. It was followed by congresses every second year until 2010. After that EuGMS congresses have been organized every year, preferably in September / October. Future congresses will be organized across Europe, 2020 in Greece, 2021 in the UK, 2022 in Finland.

Proposals for the 2023 Congress site are invited with this Request For Proposal (RFP), with a special invitation to all member countries who have not applied for the Congress so far.

ANNUAL CONGRESS PROFILE

The purpose of the annual congress is to offer education and networking opportunities for the attendees. This is accomplished through possible one day pre-congress meetings, workshops, and other educational activities, followed by a 3-day conference of plenary sessions with state-of-the-art lectures, podium presentations, as well as parallel sessions and an exhibit area with exhibitors. The three major social events will take place during the congress, an opening reception, (compliance allowing) a conference dinner, and a closing session. In addition, before and during the congress, the EuGMS also conducts its annual business and board meetings.

Currently the congress begins on Wednesday afternoon with parallel sessions followed by an opening ceremony in the late afternoon / evening, congress program (7 parallel sessions) proceeds during Thursday to Friday with the closing session on Friday afternoon. Please see www.EuGMS.org for details on recent congresses.
